What is the legal basis for the processing of personal data?

The legal basis for the processing of personal data for the above-mentioned purposes is Art. 6 para. 1 sub-para. 1 letter a GDPR (consent). Transfer to the USA in this context is based on Art. 49 para. 1 lit. a DSGVO.

Which personal data will be processed?

The following personal data will be processed:

First name and last name
Contact details (esp. email address)

How long is personal data processed/stored?

Based on the data collected, conclusions can be drawn about specific individuals. The personal data will be deleted 3 months after the conclusion of the events.

Will personal data be transferred to third parties?

Due to the use of the Whova software, data is transferred to a third country (USA). According to current legislation, this transfer is associated with risks for the data subjects.

Which are the general rights of data subjects?

1) Voluntariness and revocation according to Art. 7 para. 3 GDPR

Consent is voluntary. You will not suffer any disadvantages from non-participation or revocation. Pursuant to Art. 7 para. 3 GDPR, the consent may be revoked at any time. The personal data of the person in question will no longer be processed. The revocation shall not affect the lawfulness of the processing that took place on the basis of the consent until the revocation.

2) Right to information (Art. 15 GDPR)

Data subjects have the right to obtain information on the data processed concerning them, as well as the possible recipients of this data, at any time. They are entitled to a reply within one month from the responsible party for the data processing receiving the request for information.

3) Right to rectification, erasure and restriction (Art. 16 - 18 GDPR)

Data subjects may request at any time that TU Dresden rectifies or erases their personal data or restricts its processing.

4) Right to the transferability of data (Art. 20 GDPR)

Data subjects may request that the responsible party send them their personal data in a machine-readable format. Alternatively, they can request the direct transfer of their personal data to a different responsible party, insofar as this is possible.

5) Right to lodge a complaint (Art. 77 GDPR)

In the case of a complaint pursuant to Art. 77 GDPR, data subjects can at any time contact the responsible supervisory authority for data protection. Sächsischer Datenschutzbeauftragter; Postfach 11 01 32; 01330 Dresden; www.saechsdsb.de

Note: To claim your rights, it is sufficient to notify the responsible person in writing (email or letter).
